

HERE'S HOW YOU CAN HELP

So you want to make a difference in your community but you don't know where to start?
Here are three organizing actions you can take.

What to Give	Give Time	Give Money	Give People Power
Why	Volunteers are the lifeblood of every campaign. By giving time you are helping to organize your community for change. There are MANY types of volunteer opportunities. Let's find the ones that are best for you!	You can give a one time contribution or you can make your contribution recurring. Recurring monthly donations are critical to any successful campaign. By giving monthly, you are consistently supporting your candidate's organizing efforts, and helping them plan ahead more strategically.	We need voters and friends of voters to hear our message. Research and years of historic wins have shown us that having authentic 1:1 conversations with those around us has the greatest impact on local elections.
Get started!	Go to your candidate's website to find events and volunteer opportunities.	Find your candidate's ActBlue fundraising page	Write down a list of five people you have relationships with in your district
Go for it!	Sign up for a volunteer training shift! You don't need any volunteer experience. - Text banking is great for introverts! - Phone banking is great for extroverts! - Door knocking is great for folks who love to walk! - Post card writing is great for folks with beautiful penmanship! If you're unsure which training is right for you, email the organizing team outlining your skills and your excitement to take action and they'll help you find the best place to put your time!	Give a recurring monthly gift to your candidate using their ActBlue fundraising Page. By making your contribution recurring you are giving the campaign the stability they need to create a winning organizing program. Giving ahead helps them budget how many trainings they can host, how many voters they can reach, and how many ads they can run to share their message.	Talk to those five people about why you love your candidate, and ask when they would like to get involved. Example script: "Hi! I thought of you because you and I care so much about this issue. I'm getting involved with my candidate because I know they'll fight for this issue we both care about. When can you remind five friends to vote for them?"
Go a step further!	Invite a friend to come with you to your volunteer shift!	Send the fundraising page to three friends and tell them why you chose to give!	Ask those five people to join the volunteer slack channel!
